

16

century, Andy Warhol made his mark on popular culture in a wholly unique way. His massive contribution to the Pop Art movement and his mixing in diverse social circles make Warhol a seminal figure of his time. This exhibition showcases works from the 1950's through to the 1980's, presenting his films, installations, paintings and general creativity in a way that sheds new light on a flamboyant yet somewhat mysterious character. Essential viewing for any self-respecting Warholites out there. (CH)

Andy Warhol:
Other Voices, Other Rooms
 📅 From 7th October 2008
 until 18th January 2009
 📍 Hayward Gallery, London
 🌐 www.haywardgallery.org.uk

London Design Festival from 13th to 23rd September 2008, London
 Packed full of design-led events throughout the second week of September, the London Design Festival is as extensive as it gets.

16 Floral Beauty

It was instant love from the minute we first set our sights on Robin Derrick's photographs of floral arrangements. A former Vogue Art and Creative Director, Derrick examines the role of beauty in photography, using his unique studio – and, more particularly, lighting – techniques to create exquisite prints. This one only runs until 8th October though so make sure to find an excuse to hop across the channel for a weekend in the next few weeks.

Robin Derrick – Cut Flowers
 📅 From 18th September
 until 8th October 2008
 📍 The Old Train Depot, London